

Join us for a dynamic 4-part series to embrace our diverse Yellowjacket community. By attending this series, help us ensure that every Yellowjacket feels valued, respected, and empowered.

EVENTS:

2/11/2025

Women in the Medical Field with Amy Nelson

 CF 206/208

 1:00–2:00pm

Amy will highlight the unique challenges women face as a professional in the medical field and how she overcame them. She will share her journey and how her resilience and determination led to her success.

2/18/2025

Courageous Conversations with Sidney Frye

 CF 206/208

 1:00–2:00pm

Learn how to have healthy "Courageous Conversations" about critical topics related to racism and inequality. Stop avoiding the elephant in the room and engage in meaningful dialogue beyond rhetoric, promoting a culture where all voices are heard.

2/25/2025

Safe Space Training with Dr. Jorgenson

 CF 206/208

 1:00–3:00pm

Join in the conversation to discuss what the letters in LGBTQIA+ represent. Gain a greater understanding of pronouns, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, the queer legal landscape, cultivating effective allyship, and resources.

3/4/2025

Implicit Bias with Victoria Alexander

 CF 206/208

 1:00–2:00pm

With half a million followers on TikTok, Victoria is on a mission to raise critical consciousness in students to help them explore their racial and social identities, build anti-racist communities, and create social change. This program will cover understanding implicit bias, what to do about implicit bias, and the impact of addressing implicit bias.